

Supplementary Figure 1. Percentage of neuroendocrine carcinoma component in 16 MANECs for which we were able to evaluate both the primary tumor (black dot) and the relative metastasis (white dot). In the metastases the NEC component was more extensively represented than the exocrine component (p: 0.0002, paired t-test).